

GDS Announces Launch of Proposed Public Offering of ADSs

December 4, 2019

SHANGHAI, China, Dec. 04, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- GDS Holdings Limited ("GDS" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: GDS) today announced that it intends to offer and sell American Depositary Shares ("ADSs"), each representing eight of its Class A ordinary shares, with an aggregate public offering size of approximately US$250 million, subject to market and other conditions, in an underwritten public offering. The underwriters will have a 30-day option to purchase additional ADSs representing an aggregate public offering size of approximately US$37.5 million from GDS.

GDS intends to use approximately US$190 million of the net proceeds from this offering to fund a portion of the cash consideration and assumed liabilities for the acquisition of three data centers at a campus located in Shunyi district, Beijing, which we refer to as Beijing 10, Beijing 11 and Beijing 12 ("the Acquisition"), and use the remaining net proceeds from this offering, or all of the net proceeds from this offering if the Acquisition is not consummated, to fund other land, building, and data center acquisitions and for general corporate purposes.

J.P. Morgan, RBC Capital Markets, BofA Securities and Haitong International are acting as joint book-running managers for the proposed offering.

The securities described above are being offered by GDS pursuant to a shelf registration statement filed by GDS with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") that automatically became effective as of January 23, 2018. The offering is being made only by means of an effective shelf registration statement, including a preliminary prospectus supplement and final prospectus, which was or will be filed with the SEC and available on the SEC's website located at <http://www.sec.gov>.
